

FLAGLER PLAYHOUSE 2008-2009 Season

CABARET

Oct. 17, 18, 24, 25, 26, 31, Nov. 1, 2, 7, 8.

CABARET is one of the great musicals of all time, winning multiple Tony Awards on Broadway. CABARET is set in Germany in the late 1920s. A love story, a story of decay and lost souls and a story of redemption. Great numbers include “Cabaret,” “Wellkommen,” “Don’t Tell Mamma” and “Tomorrow Belongs to Me.” So by all means “come to the Cabaret my friends”!

Miracle at the Crossroads

A Family Holiday Festival,
Dec. 5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14, 19, 20.

We celebrate with special arrangements of holiday songs including popular Andrews Sisters hits, traditional carols, Hanukah and Kwanzaa songs, and stories such as the “Polar Express” and “The Gift of the Magi.” Your family will revel in the holiday spirit with Santa and punch and cookies in the aisles. $5.00 of every ticket will go to a local charity.

Crowns

Jan 23, 24, 25, 30, 31, Feb. 1, 6, 7, 13, 14.

Crowns is a spectacular gospel musical featuring the great Linda Cole as Grandma, the matriarch of the play. Five women assemble at Church to tell the stories of the crowns (hats) they wore through years of singing and worship. It is a magnificent tale of our history and our music, featuring great songs such as, “Eyes On The Sparrow,” “Saints Go Marching In” and “Amazing Grace.” This is a celebration not to be missed.

Arsenic and Old Lace

Mar. 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22, 27, 28

Auditions: Jan 7, 8.

What are those two sweet old ladies serving their frequent gentlemen guests? This great American comedy classic will bedazzle with gentle humor, gothic characters and a wonderfully bizarre love story! What’s hiding in the window seat and why is that man yelling “charge” and running up the stairs? Arsenic will keep you laughing.

The Taffetas

May 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 15, 16, 17, 22, 23.

Four singing sisters from Muncie, Indiana are making their national television singing debut and this provides the background for an unforgettable evening of the greatest hits of the 1950s featuring “Volare,” “Mr. Sandman,” “Dedicated to the One I Love,” “Where the Boys are,” “Love Letters in the Sand” and many more. A wonderful tribute to the Girl Groups of the 1950s.
